

HRA Student/Player Code of Conduct

Representing HRA, especially at sporting events, is both a privilege and an honor. It provides a unique opportunity to display our Catholic, classical identity. Every individual you encounter during these events should leave with a positive impression of the Catholic faith, the school, and you personally.

Students are reminded that all HRA policies and behavioral expectations apply to all school events, including those off-campus where they represent HRA. These rules and policies are designed with the best interests of the group and team in mind, and students are expected to follow the guidance of coaches, staff, and chaperones to ensure a positive and enjoyable experience.

General Rules of Conduct:

- Adhere to all rules and procedures set by HRA, coaches, chaperones, and any host locations (e.g., schools, hotels, restaurants).
- Treat others with kindness, respect, and politeness in both speech and behavior at all times.
- Be punctual for travel, practices, mealtimes, and all other scheduled activities.
- Come prepared for events with the required clothing, equipment, or materials.
- Practice the way you want to play.
- Inform coaches of absences for practices and games in a timely manner.
- Bring a positive, hard-working attitude to all practices and games
- Support the team in every way you can.
